Marks Nelson Vohland Campbell Radetic LLC
Accepted as a Leading Edge Partner

(December 12, 2011– Kansas City, Mo) – Marks Nelson Vohland Campbell Radetic LLC (MarksNelson), the largest locally owned accounting firm in Kansas City, announces the acceptance of the firm into The Leading Edge Alliance, the 2nd largest international professional association of independently-owned accounting and consulting firms. As the only firm in Kansas City accepted into The Leading Edge, the firm now has access to resources nationally and internationally.

The Leading Edge Alliance enables member firms to access the resources of a multibillion dollar global professional services organization, providing business development, professional training and education, and peer-to-peer networking opportunities.

"This new relationship provides us with additional resources to service all our clients, and, in addition, those clients that are expanding internationally. Now with our access to these many professionals, we can offer a depth and breadth of business and financial services unmatched by any other local firm and parallel to national and international firms", explains Mark Radetic, Managing Partner.

Membership in The Leading Edge is limited to firms that demonstrate experience, expertise, technical knowledge and client relationship skills. In addition, firms that are accepted enjoy geographic exclusivity. Additional information about The Leading Edge Alliance can be found at www.leadingedgealliance.com.

Marks Nelson Vohland Campbell Radetic LLC is the largest locally owned accounting firm in the Kansas City area providing full service accounting, tax and consulting services. Additional information is available at www.marksnelsoncpa.com
